

Fireman/paramedic needs your help

Steve Goforth, a fireman and paramedic serving Everett, WA, was diagnosed recently with congestive heart failure and is waiting for a heart transplant. Community members are raising funds to help defray Steve's mounting medical expenses.

There are many ways you can help:

- Come if you can to the barrel race and silent auction benefit May 18. See details below.
- Print the attached flyer and post it around your town—particularly places like fire halls and feed shops.
- Forward this e-mail to all your friends to let them know about the event and Steve's fund.
- Enter the barrel race—4D format and awards for each division. Contact Kay Brooks at (360) 691-5224.
- Donate an item for the silent auction.
- Send a contribution to the Steve Goforth Medical Fund at any Bank of America branch, account # 36527372, or www.firemansheart.org.
- Go to www.firemansheart.org for more details.

Silent auction items include

- Brand new Triple Creek barrel racing saddle
- Nintendo Wii system
- 18 holes of golf and dinner at the Gleneagle Golf Course in Arlington, WA
- Jay Buhner signed baseball and four Everett AquaSox tickets
